

Montana State Employees'
Charitable Giving Campaign

The Montana State Employees' Charitable Giving Campaign is an annual fall event administrated by the Department of Administration in accordance with the provisions of Section §2-15-122, MCA. It is the once a year opportunity for Montana State Employees to contribute to non-profit charities at the workplace.

Jack Lynch, appointed by Governor Bullock, will serve a two-year term (2013-2015) as the statewide campaign chair for the Employees' Charitable Giving Campaign.

Since 1991, State Employees have contributed millions of dollars to benefit statewide and national communities. See list below:

Campaign year	Total Contributions	Campaign Year	Total Contributions
2012	$420,000	2001	$273,065
2011	$437,425	2000	$247,975
2010	$453,882	1999	$224,247
2009	$527,739	1998	$189,394
2008	$501,985	1997	$165,000
2007	$439,916	1996	$145,729
2006	$405,484	1995	$138,751
2005	$335,232	1994	$119,856
2004	$300,554	1993	$121,085
2003	$301,638	1992	$119,560
2002	$298,067	1991	$126,100

Some highlights from the 2012 campaign:

- The campaign received generous support from more than 1,653 employees with an average gift amount of approximately $253.
- By contributing through the SECGC, employees became eligible to win prizes donated by generous organizations and individuals. Among the prize items were $1,000 cash prize, a HD television, and 2012 Cat-Griz football tickets.

Thank you state employees!